Inside Creativity Coaching

40 Inspiring Case Studies from Around the World

Edited by Eric Maisel

In this accessible and practical guide, creativity coaches from around the world describe their work with clients in the first-ever case study examination of the art and practice of creativity coaching. Concrete tools and techniques are provided throughout for creative problem-solving and to help writers, musicians, and other creatives with issues of blockage, procrastination, performance anxiety, and motivation. The book will be valuable reading for aspiring creativity coaches and therapists curious about how to better serve their creative clients.
